Le petit café de Milo

Session 2 / Screen-free / About 25 minutes

J’ai… / Je voudrais…

New: lait, fromage. Review: pomme, banane, pain, eau and montre / donne.

Milo, the four familiar foods, milk and cheese (real, toy or drawn), two plates and a napkin. Print the plan, then put screens away.

0-3 min Hello, familiar foods

Set out pomme, banane, pain and eau. Give a few familiar show/give instructions; let her direct Milo too.

You: Montre-moi la pomme. Donne-moi la banane.

Milo: Bonjour ! Donne-moi le pain !

3-6 min Two new things on the menu

Introduce milk and cheese separately. Show and name each, then place them beside familiar objects.

You: Voici du lait. Voici du fromage. Montre-moi le lait.

Milo: Donne-moi le fromage ! Merci !

6-10 min What I have, what I want

Use the familiar apple and banana. Give Milo the apple: touch it for “J’ai”. Reach towards the banana for “Je voudrais”. Then give her an object and swap roles.

You: Tu as quoi ? Tu voudrais quoi ?

Milo: J’ai une pomme. Je voudrais une banane.

10-17 min Our little café

Each has an object on a plate. Take turns describing what you have and asking for something different. Bring in milk and cheese when the familiar-food exchanges feel comfortable.

You: Qu’est-ce que tu as ? Tu voudrais quoi en plus ?

Milo: J’ai du pain. Je voudrais du fromage. […] Je voudrais du lait. J’ai une banane.

17-22 min Milo’s snack story

Tell the story below with Milo, an apple and a glass of water.

You: C’est l’heure du goûter !

Milo: J’ai faim ! Je voudrais une pomme.

22-25 min My snack and goodbye

Return to a real or pretend snack-time choice. End while it is still enjoyable, or stop sooner.

You: Tu as quoi ? Tu voudrais quoi ?

Milo: Voilà ! Merci ! À bientôt !

Milo’s snack

A little story to share

Use Milo, an apple and a glass of water. Tell the story for fun, without stopping to quiz.

C’est l’heure du goûter. J’ai faim !

Rub Milo’s tummy. Let Éva watch; no question yet.

Je voudrais une pomme.

Éva can give the real or pretend apple to the bear.

Merci ! Miam, miam !

Make Milo nibble his apple. Enjoy the story without testing.

Maintenant, j’ai soif. Je voudrais de l’eau.

Milo looks for his glass. Mime drinking.

Merci ! Et toi, tu voudrais quoi ?

Optional invitation: accept a word, expand it into a request, then serve her.

Quel bon goûter ! À bientôt !

Wave together. The story can be read again whenever she wants.

Help both phrases grow

Respond to a word or gesture first. Wait briefly, offer “J’ai…” or “Je voudrais…”, then one whole model if needed. Serve her anyway. Try the phrases separately before linking them.

Afterwards, note one exact example of each phrase: without help, after a starter, or after a model. A single word is not yet a full sentence, but it is useful communication.

Tomorrow: use both phrases at snack time for two minutes. Stop while it is fun. No eating, drinking or screen is required.
